VOL. XVII

Providence Phenix, Providence Patriot, and Columbian Phenix—Marriages—A to R

Published under the auspices of the General Assembly.

PROVIDENCE, R. I.:
NARRAGANSETT HISTORICAL PUBLISHING COMPANY.
INTRODUCTION.

It is with a great amount of pleasure and satisfaction that the compiler of the Vital Record of Rhode Island presents the Seventeenth volume, which we believe will prove as interesting as have the previous volumes of the series. The Newspapers from which these marriages were taken were the first Democratic papers of the State.

The General Assembly have again in their wisdom and judgment extended to this volume their usual courtesy. The usual favors have been extended us in the gathering of information, for which we extend our thanks.

Again we feel proud to acknowledge the receipt of kind words and encouragement from our many friends and from the real scholars who can speak from knowledge and experience. Our ambition is to so continue our conduct as to be still worthy the future continuance of these favors.

Please bear in mind that the dates herein given, if preceded by the name of the newspaper, mean that the marriage given is announced in that issue; otherwise the real date of the said marriage is given.

It is gratifying in one sense of the term, if not in another, to be able to announce that the six earlier volumes of this series have become so scarce as to be held at a premium. It is pleasant to note the demand that is being made for them.

We close by trusting our readers will find their usual pleasure while perusing this, our latest volume.

INDEX

The Providence Phenix, Providence Patriot and Columbian Phenix

MARRIAGES
The Providence Phenix, Providence Patriot and Columbian Phenix.

Vol. 1, No. 1, of the Providence Phenix was issued Tuesday, May 11, 1802, and the terms were $1.50 per annum. It was first printed by W. W. Dunham for T. A. Foster and W. W. Dunham at Printing House Office opposite Hon. Theodore Foster's house, Westminster street.

On July 20, 1802, this extract from the works of Washington is placed beneath the title: "In proportion as the structure of government gives force to public opinion it is essential that the public opinion should be enlightened." On Nov. 20, 1802, the publication day was changed to Saturday. Nov. 5, 1803, the quotation was dropped and the following was substituted: "Published by William W. Dunham opposite the Market House, Providence." Theodore A. Foster withdrew May 21, 1803, and Mr. Dunham then became sole owner.

Commencing Wednesday, July 18, 1804, the paper was printed and published by William Olney. Sept. 15 the publication day was changed back again to Saturday, when the announcement was made that a new font of type was to be used. This number has for title page the words "Providence Phenix" in plain letters, the bird phenix arising from the fire (which has hitherto been a prominent feature of the title page) being dropped.

Oct. 12, 1805, the announcement is made that the office is removed to the chambers over D. Vinton's store, 7 Market Square Jan. 17, 1807, Jones & Wheeler (Josiah Jones, Bennett Wheeler) announce themselves as the proprietors of the paper. Feb. 28, 1807, "Providence" is dropped from the title, and the words "The Phenix" substituted in a new style of letters. March 14 a wood cut showed these letters in white.
Jan. 16, 1808, The Phenix has a new title, "The Columbian Phenix." March 11, 1809, the word "The" was dropped from the latter title. July 15, 1809, it is announced as published by Wheeler, Jones & Co. This firm name appears but a few times, the name Jones & Wheeler continuing on each number as usual. The subtitle, "Columbian Phenix," was last used Jan. 12, 1811, and afterward no title but "Providence Phenix," in large letters and date in line following. Sept. 7 the sub-title, "The Patriot," is first used, the title having been from Jan. 19 "Columbian Phenix or Providence Patriot."

May 2, 1812, the paper is dressed in mourning in memory of the Vice President, George Clinton, who died at Washington April 20. May 3, 1813, a wood cut on the title page represented an eagle with shield in front and arrows in claws, with sunrise in the background.

Jan. 15, 1814, with the beginning of Volume XII the title of the paper is again changed. It now reads "Providence Patriot and Columbian Phenix" instead of as before "Columbian Phenix and Providence Patriot."

Jan. 2, 1819, the paper became a semi-weekly, being published Wednesday and Saturday. The former price of $2.00 was changed to $3.50, and the title became "Providence Patriot" in large letters and "Columbian Phenix" in small letters. The firm name now was Jones, Wheeler and Cranston (Barzillai Cranston being added). Mr. Cranston continued in the firm one year only, when Jones and Wheeler continued it until May, 1823. The paper before Mr. Cranston was announced from April 17, 1819, as being published by J. Jones & Co., Printers to the State, 7 Market Square.

Eaton W. Maxcy succeeded Mr. Wheeler but a year after transferred it to William Simons, the firm continuing as Jones & Simons until Nov., 1829, when Mr. Jones published as Agent. Mr. Simons retired. James O. Rockwell was editor from Nov. 11, 1829, until his death, June 7, 1831. June 9, 1832, it again became a weekly and so continued until its last issue, Dec. 29, 1832.

In politics it was Democratic. It was well edited and printed, being the first Democratic newspaper in the town of Providence. As first stated, it was first printed for T. A. Foster & Co., by W. W. Dunham. From Dec. 18, 1802, for a while it was printed by Samuel J. Williams. When it was first published it was $1.50 per annum, but when William Olney took charge it was raised to $2.00. J. Jones & Co., printers to the State, continued as proprietors until Eaton W. Maxcy succeeded Mr. Wheeler when the firm name changed May 12, 1824, to Jones & Maxcy, and May 11, 1825, it again changed to Jones & Simons which co-partnership continued as above stated until Nov. 7, 1829, when Mr. Jones continued as agent.

In the last number, Dec. 29, 1832, he announces that his son Cornelius S. Jones, will be editor and proprietor, and that the paper will have a new dress and be otherwise improved. This did not materialize however and no paper succeeded.

Of all these papers we have seen all the numbers issued except those for April 29 and Sept. 22, 1804, Jan. 24, 1829, Nov. 12, 1831, Jan. 25 and June 2, 1832. This file is in the possession of the Rhode Island Historical Society, whence these extracts and the matter published in this volume have been gleaned.
